- Brett Fogle, President
The Options University

Dear Friend,

As a trader, has this ever happened to you?

- You wake up at night in a cold sweat, thinking how in the world are you going to have enough money stashed away for retirement, which now seems farther and farther away?
- You try as hard as you can to learn the “right” way to trade, read all the books, go to all the seminars, but you still lose on almost every trade?
- You avoid your husband or wife because you've lost money on yet another trade and you just can't face her right now?
- You start to feel “unworthy” – thinking to yourself that you're never going to be able to provide true financial security for yourself and your family.
- You know – deep down in your heart – that you CAN win as a trader – if you only had the right training to get you to the confidence level you need.

If you've ever felt at least one of those fears, don't worry – you're not alone.

Those gnawing fears attack the best of beginning to intermediate traders, and – in some cases – even advanced traders who “think” they have the stock and options market figured out. “Too much knowledge” can definitely be a disadvantage in the hard-knocks world of trading.

But I have good news.

You see, there are certain risk-reduced – yet highly profitable – strategies that you can use specifically to enhance your retirement income - to the point that your retirement funds may last just as long – and perhaps much longer – than you do.

And it gets even better than that...

These strategies not only allow you the peace of mind that financial security gives you, but they can lead to much more when used exactly as we teach them.

For example, imagine being able to:

- Actually take money out of your trading account - month after month - to cover living expenses for as long as you like!
- Forget about creating that dreaded monthly budget ever again.

- Buy a brand new Mercedes or car of your choice every two years.
- Spend more quality time with your loved ones.
- Free up time to work in your community, or volunteer at your local Food Bank or church.
- Take two (or more) fun, sightseeing cruises per year.
- Pay off your house – or heck – even pay off your kids' houses.
- Simply trade full time, and retire early!

Well, you now have the chance to create that reality for yourself, and I would be thrilled to have a part in making that happen for you.

So for the first time ever, we're scheduling LIVE classes on these little-known yet highly powerful retirement income-stretching strategies.

These classes will be taught by none other than our own Ron Ianieri, former professional options floor trader extraordinaire, who has successfully traded millions of dollars in the options markets, and made success stories out of his countless number of his students all over the world...

Here Are The Most Powerful & Reliable (Yet Ultra Risk-Reduced) Strategies For Stretching Your Retirement

Income Available Anywhere!

You won't find any tired, re-hashed 'pie-in-the-sky' strategies here.

Just time-tested PROVEN retirement income-enhancing strategies that work. And they just happen to be some of the very same strategies used by professional options traders on the floor for years to maximize profits and minimize risk.

The key is in knowing the right way to use these strategies in the particular area of making your retirement income last as long as you do.

And that's exactly what we'll teach you in these 3 days of training.

We'll reveal all our secrets - in excruciating detail – exactly how these simple, easy to learn strategies not only require less cash and involve less risk than regular stock or options trading, but also how they lead to increased percentage gains!

Here's a rundown of what you'll learn...

"How To Make Your Retirement Dollars Last As Long As You Do" Series

(Classes Start Monday October 29th - 12 Noon Eastern each day )

Monday Oct. 29 - "How To Use Low-Risk Stock Replacement Strategies to Stretch Your Retirement Dollars Into Retirement... and Beyond"

When you're at or near retirement, you can't afford to take unnecessary risks at that stage. Even buying blue chip common stocks can be risky in that scenario. In this session, you'll discover little-known stock replacement strategies to not only lower your risk to almost nil, but expand your retirement income for the rest of your life.

Tuesday Oct. 30 - "How To Use Covered Calls to Generate a Second Cash Income From Your Existing Stocks and Retirement Portfolio"

Why let your existing stock or retirement portfolio just sit there earning you no income? Put it to work! But you must know the safest way to do that. In this exciting session, you'll learn exactly what you need to know to protect yourself against unnecessary loss , while maximizing your potential for gains .

Think you already know how to use covered calls to create a second income out of thin air? Well, you may have a different opinion after you discover how a world-class options trader does it.

Wednesday Oct. 31 - "How to Combine The Two For the Best of Both Worlds, Using Less Cash, Less Risk, and Higher Percentage Returns"

In this final session, this is really where the rubber meets the road. Ron reveals secrets here known only to a handful of knowledgeable traders and investors in the world. Listen as he almost magically morphs certain techniques the top options traders of the world use into the perfect plan for extending your retirement income into the foreseeable future.

I know we are promising some big things here, and they may be a little hard to believe. After all, how can you use less of your precious cash - while lowering your risk to score higher percentage returns than much more risky schemes? Well, all I can say is don't miss this life-changing session where Ron brings it all home in one neat package.

OK – That's The Good News, And Here's The Bad News...

The email that brought you to this web page was sent out to thousands of interested subscribers on our lists. But for this particular webinar series...

We Only Have Room For 50 14 More People!

You see, this is actually a special marketing test to judge the interest level of this highly specialized webinar series. If we have an overwhelming response... (and – based on the findings of a recent survey we sent out - we think it will be) we'll offer it again sometime in the future (but for a much higher price.)

For now – we expect these 50 seats to be snapped up immediately.

So this is truly as case of - you snooze – you lose!

And here's another interesting fact...

Each class will be using several actual examples to follow in real-time! You'll be able to watch and learn from the best seat in the house. Your own.

Here's the best part...

This live format is great because it teaches you the practical application of each retirement income-stretching method using the concepts and theories.

If you've ordered any of our products in the past, or even if you're new to options, here we're going to take an in-depth look at all of these strategies, and show you exactly how to use them in real-world applications, using actual examples...

What could be better?

And don't just take our word for it...

Here's What Some Of Our Past Students Have To Say:

"It has been a revelation to attend your Options University Course... "

"Ron, over the years (I am now 60) I have attended a fair number of educational courses and seminars and without doubt I have found that the best are always those lead by individuals who combine a deep passion and enthusiasm for their subject together with an all encompassing knowledge base.

"There is equally an obvious and outstanding benefit in learning from a professional who has done the trading hard yards.

"Without doubt, you qualify in all aspects. I have learned much more about Options, Options strategies, and the opportunities to use options than I ever have done in the previous two options courses that I have attended.

"It has been a revelation to attend your Options University Course and I have thoroughly enjoyed the passion and knowledge for technical analysis that you have so willingly shared with me."

— Ian S, Auckland
New Zealand

---

"You are a class act, no bull, just straight information. I can't thank you enough and will refer you to my family & friends who trade options!"

"I have been trading for over 20 years. Trading options for the last 7 years, I have spent thousands of dollars on education.

"Not one of these courses offered any type of education in options.

"You guys are a class act, no bull, just straight information. I can't thank you enough and will refer you to my family & friends who trade options."

— Peggy Secatore
Winthrop, Mass

So the question now is "how much is all of this worth to you?"

The truth is - it's potentially priceless.

After all, how can you put a price on complete peace of mind, knowing that you can now learn how to keep you and your family financially secure, possibly for the rest of your life with just 6 hours worth of training?

Think about it. You could be 6 hours away from financial freedom and 'retiring rich', as you discover the simple, easy to learn strategies to make your income last as long as you do, while not sacrificing your Golden Years to worry, frustration and financial insecurity.

You Are Now Just 3 Days Away From Eliminating Your Retirement Fears Forever!

If you are serious about learning the honest secrets of how to make your retirement funds last as long as you do... so you can put it all to use in your own life... then you should already have made up your mind here.

But... I know you may still want to know...

How much does this webinar series cost?

Here's the good news.

This webinar series is priced so that every trader and investor either retired or nearing retirement can afford it. It's surprisingly affordable because I wanted to make it a “no-brainer” for you, and easy for you to say "Yes!" Without hesitation, or delay... because you'll see the value right away.

Plus, the more money you make from these highly specialized option strategy sessions, the more you'll trust is in the future, and the more likely you'll invest in our other services.

That makes sense doesn't it?

So here's the deal...

As I said above, we're limiting our available seats to this webinar series to just 50 students as part of this special market test.

And the next time we have these classes, the prices will go up. But as part of this special 'pilot' program only, we're keeping enrollment fees remarkably low.

This service will sell out quickly, so don't delay. Other comparable services cost ten times as much, and don't deliver half the value. Just ask yourself how much money you've wasted on other programs that didn't give you a fraction of the information you need.

Plus our service is guaranteed, so you owe it to yourself to at least give this course a fair try.

Getting Started is Easy
