

Allure of Grobvater (Grandfather in German)

By: Zac Smith

Guy is his cemented being
Wise names the overall meaning
Equipped to the brim with overflowing virtues
Grandfather is beyond few and further than between

Quick to listen and slow to speak
Grandfather is as versatile as Mozambique

There are few that display empathy
There are few that know it's meaning
But even less that understand the concept of greening

Let us all raise our respected glasses and dedicate a toast
To the man that paved the way for us all whom we boast

Eighty-five years marks his knowledge rivaling that of Archimedes
But no one would have known Richard was the founder of protohistory

Alas is it time for this allure to eclipse
The sun is now setting, warm and welcoming
With the azure blue waters passing by
The ship sets sail to a place beyond the veil
